Case No. 22-14158

SCHEDULE A/B - PROPERTY
Attachment A

Debtor(s) asserts, in addition to the disclosures set forth in the petition, as follows:

(In this statement, the term 'I' shall mean 'We' in the event the filing is a joint filing)

1. Other than the personal injury action listed, I have no personal injury cases nor do I contemplate bringing an action against anyone for an injury to myself, property or otherwise. I have also not been involved in any injury cases within the past three years.

a. I also have no employment related claims such as employment discrimination, workers compensation, sexual harassment, nor have I been involved in any such claim within the past three years.

2. I do not own any real estate other than the property located at 86 Grandview Ave., North Plainfield, New Jersey, 106 West Cherry Street, Rahway, New Jersey, and 1021 Kenyon Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey. Real estate includes, but is not limited to a house, vacant land, land or a house outside the country, condominium unit, cooperative or a timeshare unit.

3. I do not expect to receive any inheritances and understand that if I am to receive an inheritance I must notify our attorney about it immediately so that the after acquired asset may be scheduled on the petition.

4. Other than Generational Genius, LLC., and Sidewalk University Economic Empowerment, LLC, I do not have any interest in a business, nor have I been involved in any businesses in the past four years.

5. I do not have any other sources of income other than as listed on my petition no one lives with me that contributes to my monthly expenses except for my mom and sisters, as the mortgage against the residential property.

6. Other than the short sale of property which I owed at 448 Catalpa Ave, North Plainfield, New Jersey, I have not transferred any real property (house, etc., see above for definition) or personal property (such as a car, boat, money) to anyone within the past three years or to any related party (such as a brother, sister, friend or relative) within the past ten years.

7. I have never filed any other bankruptcy cases other than cases other than cases 17-21145 and 13-32446.

8. I have scheduled as creditors, everyone that I owe money to and I understand that I must, without exception, notwithstanding the nature of the debt (ie, personal loan, credit union loan, credit card debt), list, as a creditor anyone that I owe money to even if the debt cannot be wiped out and/or if I want to continue to pay the obligation. There will be an additional fee for any creditor added to the petition and if a creditor is not scheduled, it may not be discharged. Furthermore, it is contrary to the law to fail to schedule an obligation, the obligation to schedule someone that I/we owe money to is required under the bankruptcy law and part of the bankruptcy petition.
9. That I am not the co-signer or guarantor of anyone else's debt other than my mother and sisters on the residential mortgage.
10. That I do not owe any money to the Internal Revenue Service and/or State of New Jersey, Division of Taxation.
11. I understand, that if the plan is set up to provide for a loan modification, that there is no guarantee that the mortgage company will offer us a loan modification in which case, generally speaking, my only way to save the property is to cure the arrearage over the life of the plan, which may or may not be feasible.
12. I understand that during the pendency of the case, if I acquire any property, including but not limited to real estate, inheritances, personal injury cases, employment cases, lottery winnings or any other asset, of any material value, defined as a value of more than $1,000, I must notify our attorneys immediately to schedule the asset and that should I fail to notify our attorneys, I risk losing the asset and/or being criminally prosecuted. I understand that any such post-petition (something that I acquire or obtain after this case is filed) asset may be considered part of my bankruptcy estate in which case I may have to pay more money to creditors in my bankruptcy case. I also understand that should there be any material change in my financial circumstances (like for example where I am making considerably more money or earning considerably less money), for the better or worse, over the course of the plan, we must notify our attorneys. A material change is defined as a considerable change in my finances such that my income increases or decreases considerably or my expenses considerably increase or decrease. Finally, I understand that I cannot obtain any credit (like buying a car or obtaining a credit card or obtaining a student loan), during the life of the case without Court or Trustee permission. That also means I cannot use any credit card that may not have had a balance due at the time the case was filed or obtain any new credit I am offered and if I do, my case may be subject to dismissal or conversion to Chapter 7.

a. As to any lawsuit or action that was originally scheduled/listed in my bankruptcy petition, any attorney representing me in that lawsuit must be retained through the Bankruptcy Court (approved by the Court). I must notify my bankruptcy attorneys of any changes pertaining to the lawsuit listed in the petition such as, but not limited to any settlement negotiations or any judgment. Failure to report any settlement(s) of any lawsuit existing at the time of filing, may result in the dismissal of my case or conversion to Chapter 7.

13. I understand that various obligations, such as, but not limited to student loans, child support, debts incurred by fraud, income taxes in various instances, and criminal fines are non-dischargeable, meaning that they cannot be wiped out in bankruptcy and continue to accrue interest and other costs and will be due when my bankruptcy is completed. I should consult my attorney for other types of obligations that may be deemed non-dischargeable.

a. I understand that if I failed to file any tax return, whether state or federal when due, that the obligation, plus interest and costs, may accrue during the course of the bankruptcy case and be due when the case is completed. So if a tax return was not filed when due, the tax obligation, and any interest and/or costs that accrue under non-bankruptcy law will be due once the case is completed, notwithstanding the classification in the case of the obligation as a priority, unsecured or secured claim.

14. No one is holding real property (such as a house) or personal property (non-real estate asset) that really belongs to me, i.e. that I really own.

15. I understand that if there are liens (such as mortgages) or judgments against my property, that were addressed in the bankruptcy, that there will be an additional fee and cost, upon plan completion, to discharge and/or cancel the judgment and/or lien. I also understand that there may be an additional fee for any motion to determine that I am current with direct payment obligations.

16. I understand that my attorney has no control over my credit score as it pertains to the bankruptcy, in other words, that by filing a bankruptcy, my credit score may remain the same, increase or decrease and my attorney has no control on that as it is based on external events.

17. I waive the right to a title report, which may show the priority of a mortgage against the property or other liens against the property.

18. I understand that a separate step or action must be taken, either in the bankruptcy court or otherwise, to discharge or cancel a judgment. The bankruptcy will wipe out personal liability as to a judgment, but a motion (for an additional fee and cost) must be filed to discharge and cancel a judgment. I understand that if I have judgments entered against me, and in particular docketed judgments ("DJ" or "J"), these judgments of record will not be automatically vacated with the appropriate court upon completion of the case, despite the discharge of the underlying personal liability of such judgments. Despite personal liability of these debts being discharged, these judgments of record may pose credit or title issues down the road, and additional steps would have to be taken, for additional costs, to vacate these judgments of record with the appropriate court of judgment. Furthermore, with respect to docketed judgments, these judgments create liens on whatever real estate is owned by me at the time of the filing of the bankruptcy. These liens will not be discharged upon completion of the case, unless additional steps, at additional cost, are taken to wipe out these liens.

19. I have reviewed and read the entire petition and it includes all of my assets (the things that I own whether real property or personal property) and all of my liabilities (that is the people or companies that I owe money to). I have also read and understand the bankruptcy information statement describing the different forms of bankruptcy, the effect of bankruptcy on my credit and the reaffirmation process. I understand that I am solely responsible for the contents of my bankruptcy petition and the information contained on the petition and I have thoroughly reviewed the entire petition on my own and then with my attorney, separately, and I signed the bankruptcy petition in my attorneys presence and I realize that this document is executed as if I am under an oath and required to be truthful. I have also provided my attorney with documents consistent with the bankruptcy filing such as, but not limited to tax returns, pay advices, bank statements, appraisals, mortgage statements and insurance information, if applicable. All of the information I have provided is truthful and accurate to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

I understand that if the foregoing is not correct, I may not receive a discharge and I may be subject to criminal fines, imprisonment and/or penalties and that I have read and understand this statement and had the opportunity to question my attorney about anything included in the statement.

SCHEDULE A/B - PROPERTY
Attachment B

As to the Kenyon Avenue property, this property is not subject to the judgments liens, because, by operation of federal and state law, it was acquired after the Chapter 7 discharge, and therefore the judgement liens do not affect the property.

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

SCHEDULE I - YOUR INCOME

Attachment A

I am currently in the process of evicting a tenant on the Grandview property. Once evicted, I will have to make repairs to the property to prepare it to be rented again. I should be able to obtain a tenant and rent the unit for $1600. The repairs and re-renting of the property should occur within a period of one year or less, contingent on the time necessary to evict the individual who now resides in the premises and then make necessary repairs.

Rent as to all of the units will be increasing 2.5% to $4%. This will provide another $60 to $118 per month on a going forward basis in the near future.

My self-employment income consists of ad-hoc consulting work. I facilitate workshops with schools regarding child assault prevention. So far this year I have earned about $750. The amount scheduled represents an year to date average,. My consulting work is limited because my time is mainly consumed, outside of regular employment, caring for my elderly mother who lives with my sisters and me. It may be the case that we hire a care preovider which will allow time for the increase in consulting work.

Increase in plan payments after twelve months is premised mostly on the additional rent from the Grandview property and also the other factors noted above.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy, and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245	filing fee
$78	administrative fee
+	$15 trustee surcharge
$338	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their non-exempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$571	administrative fee
	$1,738	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$278	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$313	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

- domestic support obligations,
- most student loans,
- certain taxes,
- debts for fraud or theft,
- debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,
- most criminal fines and restitution obligations,
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers,
- certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and
- certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/forms/bankruptcy-forms>

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

Case No. 22-14158

Debtor(s)

Retainer Agreement

This shall constitute the fee arrangement between you, the client or Debtor(s) and the law firm, that is Herbert B. Raymond, Esq., Jeffrey M. Raymond, Esq., and Kevin L. DeLyon, Esq., dba Raymond and Raymond. The fee you are being charged, pre-confirmation, is a set fee, with possible upward adjustment, contingent on services rendered. The fee you are being charged is $4,750.00, plus filing fees and costs of approximately $400 (consisting of the court filing fee, the credit counseling fee and the credit reporting fee, i.e. actual costs of filing).

Pre-Confirmation with Adjustment if Necessary: The fee charged relates to pre-confirmation services only and is a set fee, in other words, it is a flat rate fee which may be adjusted upwards depending on the services rendered in the case. The maximum amount, that the fee may be increased is to the sum of $4,750.00, a sum set by the Court, exclusive of costs. The Debtor consents and agrees to be charged this fee and understands that if the fee charged is less than the $4,750, that the attorneys/law firm, may amend the fee disclosure so that the increased fee is charged. The amended fee disclosure statement, will be e-mailed or mailed to the Debtor/client. By signing this agreement, despite the legal fee charged to you, you consent to a legal fee to be charged of up to $4,750, depending on the circumstances in the case (if additional services are rendered).

A. Excluded Services: Services pertaining to loss mitigation or loan modification efforts and representation in adversary proceedings, is not included in the fees being charged. The Court specifically excludes such fees from the flat rate charge.

i. The legal fees for loss mitigation vary and the basic or standard charge is $1,500.00. This sum is in addition to the flat or set fee noted above. There may also be additional fees pertaining to loss mitigation such as, but not including, fees for status conferences (charged at $300 to $500), loss mitigation extension or termination applications ($250 to $400) and motions to approve a loan modification ($750).

ii. Representation in Adversary Proceedings: Fees pertaining to adversary proceedings are not included in the set fee and are covered in the section labeled Litigation below.

Litigation: In some circumstances, as determined by counsel, involving considerable litigation or matters which are substantially contested, such as but not limited to, complicated legal issues, adversary proceedings, legal briefing or plenary hearings (involving a contested factual issue such as, but not limited to a valuation hearing or contested confirmation issue), a request may be made, by the law firm, to the Court, for fees to be paid an hourly rate, which shall be the rate in effect, set by the firm, at the time the services are rendered to the Debtor. Currently the maximum rate in effect is $350 per hour. Alternatively, the law firm may charge a flat or set fee for such services, to be determined by counsel, at the time the services are rendered, based on the anticipated amount and complexity of the work to be performed.

Appeal: In no event will the fee cover an appeal and no appeal will be under-taken without another agreement between the Debtor and law firm and the payment of the required legal fees and costs of appeal, if required per the agreement. The agreement may provide that legal fees only will be paid through the bankruptcy Chapter 13 plan as an administrative expense requiring no initial fee payment. Actual costs must be paid immediately by the client whether the fee is paid at the time of execution or through the plan. The fee may be a set or flat fee, to be determined by counsel, at the time the anticipated services are rendered, based on the anticipated amount and complexity of the work to be performed. Alternatively, the fee may be premised on hourly billing at the current hourly rate in effect.

Fees for pre-confirmation services whether included or excluded, will be part of your Chapter 13 plan to the extent not paid initially and if the fee is for an excluded service or if the pre-confirmation fee is increased due to the rendering of additional services, the Chapter 13 plan payment may increase. By signing this agreement, you consent to the fees that are charged and to be included under the plan and the law firm will continue to represent you and make adjustment for the fees as necessary, depending on services rendered, and the fees will be part of your Chapter 13 plan and may result in an increase in plan payments.

Unanticipated/Unforeseeable At the Time of Filing and/or Post-Confirmation: The fee noted above, whether flat rate, increased by adjustment or hourly, does not include any services rendered to you, if unanticipated/unforeseeable at the time of filing and/or after the approval (confirmation) of your plan. Thus any service, including but not limited to services, other than those services deemed part and parcel of the original fee or plan, performed after the confirmation of your plan or that were unanticipated or unforeseeable at the time of your filing, may be charged to you, pursuant to the following schedule and are known as supplemental counsel fees:

- a. Modified Plans: $500
- b. Motions Filed on Behalf of the Debtor: $750
- c. Defense of Trustee Motion(s) or Trustee Default Certification(s): $400
- d. Stay Relief Motions or any Other Motion(s), Application(s) or Default Certifications Filed Against the Debtor: $400 to $650
- e. Retention Application(s): $350
- f. Notice of Settlement and/or Notice of Sale: $250
- g. Amendments to Petition For All Schedules Except Schedules I and J: $200 (Plus Actual Costs)
- i. Amendment(s) to Petition for Schedules I and/or J: $250 Per Schedule Plus Actual Costs, if applicable
- h. Additional Court Appearances Pertaining to Any of the Above or Below: $150
- i. Preparation of Wage Order: $150
- j. Conversion of Case: Any amounts still due under the plan plus additional legal fees ($350 to $1,200) and actual costs of conversion such as amendment filing fee and conversion fee
- k. Filing of Proof of Claim on Behalf of Any Creditor: $275

These after confirmation and/or unanticipated/unforeseeable at the time of filing, supplemental legal fees are be charged to the Debtor/Client consistent with this schedule. In very complicated or time consuming situations, like, for example, where a legal issue arises or where there is a contested factual issue necessitating a plenary hearing, the fee charged may be on an hourly basis, at the rate, in counsel's discretion, in effect at the time the service is rendered. Alternatively, the law firm may charge a flat fee for such services, to be determined at the time the services are rendered, based on the anticipated amount and complexity of the work to be performed. The Debtor(s) consents to the post-confirmation fees and/or unanticipated/unforeseeable at the time of filing fees to be charged, whether on an hourly basis, pursuant to this fee schedule (for an enumerated or standard service) and/or on a set or flat fee basis, and the attorney will represent the Debtor(s) and charge the Debtor pursuant to the this schedule, with the legal fees, in most cases, to be added to the plan, unless the Debtor notifies the firm otherwise. The additional fee, if made a part of the plan, may result in an increase in the Debtor's plan payment to the Trustee.

The fee schedule shall be inapplicable, should there be any major change to the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, in which case the law firm shall publish and retain a new schedule, for inspection and review by the client upon request. The new fee schedule shall be implemented only in the case of a substantial change to the law and shall apply to all ongoing cases.

Costs: Actual costs of filing, such as, but not limited to the costs noted above (i.e. court filing fees, credit reporting fees, conversion fees, appeal fees, title report costs, debtor education course, loss mitigation web portal, amendment, reopening, case severing, judgment search, judgment cancellation or mortgage recording), must be paid by the Debtor/Client. These actual costs must be paid by the Debtor and the actual cost must be paid to counsel before it is incurred, unless paid through the bankruptcy plan, if applicable.

Fees Due Upon Dismissal or Conversion: If your case is ever dismissed, you will still owe to the law firm any amounts due under the plan which have yet to be paid (unpaid amounts). Similarly, upon conversion, the amounts still due under the plan, must be paid before conversion of your case to another chapter of the code, and you have agreed, by signing this agreement, we have no obligation to convert the case, until all fees and costs due to the firm are completely paid.

Irrevocable Assignment of Legal Fees and/or Costs: The Debtor, by signing this statement, assigns his/her/their interest, in the funds held by the Trustee, to the extent Counsel is still owed legal fees or expenses, for services rendered or expenses incurred. You hereby irrevocably assign to us your interest in all payments made to the Chapter 13 Trustee, to the extent of any balance due, subject to Court approval of such fees and/or expenses. If your case is dismissed, or converted before our fees and/or expenses are paid in full, you agree to allow the Chapter 13 Trustee to pay the balance due to us directly from funds that would otherwise be returned to you, subject to Court approval of the fees and/or expenses. This means that if the Chapter 13 Trustee is holding funds, from payments that you made into the case, at the time the case is converted or dismissed, you have agreed that those funds are assigned to us and that such funds will be paid to our firm on account of legal fees and/or costs still due and owing.

By signing this agreement, you agree to the fee structure noted above regarding the legal fees (flat, adjustment upward, hourly, post-confirmation and unanticipated/unforeseeable), and to the assignment of Legal Fees and/or Costs in the case. By signing this agreement, I consent to the terms and accept the fee agreement and understand the fee arrangement. This means that my attorney(s) will continue to represent me and any charges shall be consistent with this agreement. I understand that effective legal representation means cooperating with my attorney by providing information, whether in the form of documents or information, and being forthright (honest). I understand that should I fail to cooperate with my attorney in this manner or that if I am not forthright, I jeopardize the continuation of my case and my attorney may ask the Court to withdraw as my counsel. There will be no refunds of any legal fees if the firm withdraws as counsel and there will be no refunds of any sums once the case is filed with the Court.

Designation of Contact: You must provide us, to be noted on this agreement, in this space with a cellular phone number and email address, so that we are able to contact you to discuss your case (including how to proceed in any situation) and provide you with information pertaining to your case. You consent, by signing this agreement, to receiving and obtaining information about your case through email (thus we will send all correspondence and documents to you through email and not by regular mail except in exceptional circumstances) and to be contacted to discuss your case by phone, email and/or text message. You are responsible for checking and receiving all messages through these methods and should you fail to respond to us, we will either:

- a) Take the steps we deem necessary or appropriate in the situation to best represent you
- b) File a request to no longer be your attorney
- c) Not oppose relief requested in certain situations resulting in the loss of property and/or the dismissal of your case

You must immediately notify us should there be any change in your email address or phone number, so that we may contact you when necessary.

Title and Judgment Searches: If you own real estate (such as a house), we encourage you to obtain a title search and/or judgment search, to determine the encumbrances against your property, in the case of a mortgage or other lien and/or to determine docketed judgments which operate as liens against the property. We are not professional property evaluators and the only way to properly determine whether a lien exists, as to real estate, is to obtain a title search. As to judgments, we also cannot properly determine judgments against you without a commercially obtained judgment search. The cost of a title report is several hundred dollars and a judgment search is typically less than $100. If you wish to obtain a title report and/or judgment search, you must pay these costs to us initially. By initialing this statement, you have indicated that you understand our recommendation to obtain these professional reports and that by not obtaining these reports we cannot properly determine liens, mortgages or judgments against real estate that you own [We may obtain information as to judgments, mortgages or liens through public records but cannot promise or guarantee that the information is correct, which may adversely affect you or ultimately result in additional costs or fees in your case or otherwise], which may seriously affect you should you ultimately want to sell or refinance the property.

Your Initials: AR

If you do not own real estate, a judgment search is still a recommended course of action, since it may be the case that judgments entered against you form a cloud on title in the event you purchase or obtain real estate after your bankruptcy case is completed. Judgments may also negatively affect your credit.
